QUORUM

1. A majority of the trustees of a Division, when present at a meeting, constitutes a quorum; and the vote of the majority of such a quorum is valid and binds the school Division, subject to any by-law duly passed by the Board of Trustees and in force.(1)
2. If there is no quorum when the meeting is supposed to begin, those trustees present may wish to proceed with the business of the meeting, operating as a committee, and when a quorum is present, the legally constituted meeting would then be asked to approve the decisions made by the committee. This committee would not be referred to as a committee of the whole because a quorum for a committee of the whole would be the same number as would be a quorum for the Board.
