PRIVILEGES OF STAFF NEGOTIATING ORGANIZATION

Staff negotiating organizations have the permission of the Board to use, to a reasonable extent, those Division facilities and services which are necessary to carry on negotiations (ie.school room space, equipment, copying equipment, and word processing equipment.

More specifically, these privileges involve the use of school room space for negotiating meetings, use of inter-school mail facilities, the use of copying equipment, and word processing equipment.

These privileges should be exercised only with the approval of the principal.
