STUDENT CONDUCT

Kelsey School Division expects certain standards of conduct from all its students.

Students shall:

- 1) be diligent in their studies.
- 2) be kind and courteous to classmates.
- 3) be co-operative with and show courtesy and respect to teachers and to other school authorities.
- 4) attend school regularly and punctually.
- 5) provide a reasonable explanation to the teacher, either orally or in writing as required, in case of absence or tardiness.
- 6) be clean and tidy in person and in dress, and wear appropriate clothing for a school setting. Obscenities written on clothing are not acceptable and beach wear must not be worn in school (see JFCA).
- 7) accept responsibility for care of personal belongings, for practising good housekeeping habits, and for locking valuables in lockers where they are provided.
- 8) comply with traffic laws and regulations when making their way to or from school.
- 9) be responsible to their teachers and principal for their conduct on the school premises and also for their behaviour towards one another on the way to and from school.
- 10) use only decent and acceptable language in school, on the grounds, and on the way to and from school.
- 11) replace or pay for any school property which they have lost, wilfully destroyed, broken, or damaged.
- 12) behave decently in assemblies in accordance to school rules.
- 13) show no observable sign of gang affiliation, gang involvement, or gang activities on or near school property.
- 14) abide by all school policies.

Failure to abide by this policy will require that a student be subject to the discipline process (see JG-Student Disciplinary Process) dealt with as directed by the “Code of Conduct”, hereby attached.
